KwaThema Disability Sports Club has been nominated for the Gauteng Sports Awards due to take place at Emperors Palace, on June 30.

The sports club has been nominated for two categories, with club member Zandi Nhlapho selected for the Sports Women of the Year and the club for Team of the Year, both nominees are for the disability division.

The club has been in the spotlight since the beginning of the year when they acquired the Team of the Year award at the Ekurhuleni Sports Awards, in March.

The club that aspires to constantly grow disability sports in KwaThema has four of its members preparing for the national Wheelchair Tennis SA Third and Fourth Level tournament.

The games will take place in Polokwane from June 25 to 29, and in Soweto, from July 1 to 4.

Thapelo Motsape, Gift Miya,

Sibusiso Nkosi and Katleho Makwela were selected during the tennis camp held at Primrose in Germiston, on May 23.

This opportunity might afford the youngsters a chance to be part of the wheelchair tennis camp that takes place in Spain every December.
